A Card From Mr. Meeker.

EDITOR VOICE: There has been a posed was a to have report circulated that I had signed an books and store is agreement that I would not vote for any bill that would in any way injure the railroads and I think it is due to those who supported me to know the claimed the right to ditruth of the matter. I never signed and after investigation as or agreed to any thing of the kind, allowed. This left me out. I did sign an agreement that I would candidate Naugle by holding the paper back the week before election. The paper was late in being mailed because the force was too busy to print and mail them on time. It was not held back on account of the Forney article, as the Monitor intimates. Now we would like the Monitor to figure out how much was made for its party by postmasters falling to deliver the same issue until after election. As to the "dishonorable" attack on Mr. Simpson, Mr. Naugle's opponent, we defy the Monitor to point out an antiruth or false statement. If telling the truth is disnonorable then the Voice acknowledges the corn. If Voice acknowledges the corn. If of your city, to rent my house there any misrepresentation of Mr. Simpson was made, the Voice is ready to make the correction, even after elecany misrepresentation of Mr. Simpson was made, the Voice is ready to make the correction, even after elec-while we can already see the effect of a grand political revolution, the time is too early, and the result too uncertain to call for much comment. The metropolitan press, which represents anything but the masses of the people, is free to give its reasons for the extraordinary overturning of political affair. people, is free to give its reasons for the extraordinary overturning of po-litical affairs, always taking pains to lead public attention from the real causes, if possible. It is foolish to at-tribute this great change to the Me-kinley bill, to the phantom force bill, or to the personnel of the candidates, as long as grosser wrongs and were than its truthfulness. as long as grosser wrongs and more vital issues are staring the people in Glancing over the western states, it takes an unprejudiced mind but a moment to discover that the real cause of the revolt was the agitation of the money, railroad and land questions, all of which bear directly on the interest of the producer. One plain proposition must be presented here, and it is one which very few readers of the Advocate will dispute. Had the people of all the states been as well educated in politics and political economy as they are in Kansas, Weaver would now be elected instead of Cleveland. Leaving the sinking hulk of the Republican party, they were catching at straws to save themselves, and the straw they caught at in some states was Democratic tariff reform. It is to be hoped that it will save them until they can do better.

Jeans and never, so that him before this.

This, I believe, is as a true a statement of the occurrence herein narrated as can be made and I leave the medit of draw his own conclusions: Mr. Savage, who sat on that board as one of the judges, will tell the inquirer of other irregularities that were allowed by that board that day over it is earnest protest. This, too, in Kansas, where the boast is made that every citizen is secure in the right to east his vote for whom he pleases and have it fairly counted.

Bah! But let us hope that the lesson administered last Tuesday Nov. S. 1892, to the dominant party of this state will teach them that ring rule and machine politics are forever done in this fair land of ours. Stand up for Kansas and principle.

roup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness, then the child appears to have taken cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would prevent the attack. Even after the rough cough has appeared, the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. The only safe way is to keep a 50 cent bottle of the Remedy in the house for use whenever symptoms of the disease appear. For sale by, H. F. Smith.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try U. Styden's, Drugstore. Large bottles, find the disease appear. For sale by, H. F. Smith.

For Sorre Throat.—Saturation of the disease appear of the disease appear of the disease appear. For sale by, H. F. Smith.

FOR SORE THROAT.—Saturate a flannel bandage with Chamberlain's Fain Balm and bind it on the throat. It will cure any ordinary case in one night's time. For sale by H. F. Smith.

Topeka Advocate.

At last the people of Kansas seem to have come to a realization of their condition, and thrown off the yoke that has bound them like slaves to their party for so many years. The same will be said of the people of other states after the election returns are all in.

While we can already see the effect of a great wrong had been done me. On the night following I went to the opera and getting there have I found no one there but Harry Wood, the manager. While he making change for my ticket, I remarked to him that I thought he had done me a great injustice by so persistently challenging my vote, while other law. ney, who held the opinion that I had the right to vote there.
